

ENGLISH TEST 4

FILL IN THE MISSING WORD:

- 1) It was not easy to climb the _____ mountain.
- 2) The terrorists started shooting at _____, killing anyone that came across their way.
- 3) At rush hours I take the _____, in order to avoid the heavy traffic.
- 4) I hate _____ places, that's why I don't participate in places where there are many people.
- 5) He is not really sick. He only _____ he is, in order not to go to school.
- 6) I hear strange noises coming from the _____ of the car. It needs fixing.
- 7) The traffic lights were not working, so the policeman was standing at the crossroads, giving _____ to the drivers.
- 8) Although he didn't say anything, I could tell by the _____ on his face that he wasn't happy.
- 9) You mustn't be _____ against other people, just because they are from other races.
- 10) My _____ appreciates my work. He's promised to give me a raise.
- 11) My room is always _____ arranged. I like order.
- 12) Children like to ride their bikes around the _____ near the town council.
- 13) On hot summer days I always walk along the _____ side of the street. I can't bear the sun.
- 14) My birthday, nationality, religion etc, are all stated in my birth _____.
- 15) The baby can _____ He cannot walk yet.

נשאל, עזבו, מנסים, באקראי, תלם, צבוע, נדם, רשמי, לקבוע, מוצא, עמיתים פנים, מתעצב, תיעוק, הבאה, מנוע, מספר, במסגרת מסתם, צעה קבועה, בעל פה קבועה, צדק צבוע, מוצא, מסתם, תעורה, תמורה, אדם, הוראה, אהתיק, רחם, מפכה, אקטיבי, כיכר

Answer the following question:

How is racism^{יוצא} expressed in the story through the inspector's and Mrs. Ericson's attitudes? Explain in detail.

PUT IN THE PAST SIMPLE, PAST PERFECT OR THE PAST PERFECT PROGRESSIVE.

Mr. Epstein (wait) _____ until everybody (finish) _____ his dinner and then (start) _____ his lecture on the energy crisis. Most of the guests (seem) _____ utterly bored. The rest (be) _____ only mildly interested. Somehow, they (not appear) _____ to be as interested as they (be) _____ during the meal.

2) As soon as I (knock) _____ on the door, I (have) _____ the feeling that I (make) _____ a mistake. The man who (open) _____ the door (seem) _____ a complete stranger, very different from the old friend I (expect) _____ to find at that address. It (turn) _____ out that the man I was looking for (move) _____ away years before without leaving any forwarding address.

D. Fill in the correct tense.

Dan (play) _____ tennis very well. He (take) _____ private tennis lessons for a few months about three years ago and he (practise) _____ a few times a week ever since. I (not like) _____ to play with him because I never (win) _____. Dan (try) _____ for years to convince me to take lessons and practise seriously. I (think) _____ he is right. Tennis (be) _____ a wonderful sport. However, I (be) _____ too lazy and (not have) _____ enough self discipline. I (often, think) _____ about taking it up, but I (not start) _____ yet.

As I (wash) _____ my father's car last week, I (see) _____ Dan. He (hold) _____ his tennis racket in one hand but his arm was broken. I (ask) _____ him what (happen) _____. He said, "I (play) _____ tennis when my own racket (trip) _____ me and I (fall) _____."