

7th grade Test

I- Fill in the blanks with the appropriate tenses: Present Simple, Present Progressive or Fast Simple. (25x2=50)

morning, I	,	September 2 nd , 2006
morning, I (not, want) to go to school. I (tell) my mother that (be) sick. Of course, she (not, believe) me. She (give) me a big kiss and (help) me get ready for school. After (have) breakfast and (drink) some orange juice, my father (drive) me to school. I thought it would be difficult to make new friends but when (go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from	Dear Ilan,	8
morning, I (not, want) to go to school. I (tell) my mother that (be) sick. Of course, she (not, believe) me. She (give) me a big kiss and (help) me get ready for school. After (have) breakfast and (drink) some orange juice, my father (drive) me to school. I thought it would be difficult to make new friends but when (go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from	1	_ (write) now to tell you about my
morning, I (not, want) to go to school. I (tell) my mother that (be) sick. Of course, she (not, believe) me. She (give) me a big kiss and (help) me get ready for school. After (have) breakfast and (drink) some orange juice, my father (drive) me to school. I thought it would be difficult to make new friends but when (go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from	first day at school. When I	(wake) up yesterday
school. I (tell) my mother that (be) sick. Of course, she (not, believe) me. She (give) me a big kiss and (help) me get ready for school. After (have) breakfast and (drink) some orange juice, my father (drive) me to school. I thought it would be difficult to make new friends but when (go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from		V2
(be) sick. Of course, she (not, believe) me. She (give) me a big kiss and (help) me get ready for school. After (have) breakfast and (drink) some orange juice, my father
(not, believe) me. She (give) me a big kiss and (help) me get ready for school. After (have) breakfast and (drink) some orange juice, my father (drive) me to school. I thought it would be difficult to make new friends but when (go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron, who (not, live) far from	(be)	sick. Of course, she
(give) me a big kiss and (help) me get ready for school. After (have) breakfast and (drink) some orange juice, my father (drive) me to school. I thought it would be difficult to make new friends but when (go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from		(not, believe) me. She
(help) me get ready for school. After (have) breakfast and (drink) some orange juice, my father		(give) me a big kiss and (drink) some orange juice, my father		(help) me get ready for school. After father	·	(have) breakfast and I thought it would be difficult to make new friends but when (go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who	- Chillippy	(drink) some orange juice, my
(go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from	father	(drive) me to school.
(go) to class yesterday morning, (find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from	·
(find) out that my new classmates (be) very friendly. They (make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from
(make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from		(go) to class yesterday morning,
(make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who (not, live) far from		(find) out that my new classmates away. Ron , who (not, live) far from		, (be) very menaly. They away. Ron , who (not, live) far from		(make) me feel welcome right away. Ron , who	(not, live) far from

Part 2 CAROL

Answer the following questions about the story. Write full answers, and pay attention to your handwriting, spelling and grammar. (25x2=50)

Write on every second line.

1. How did Carol feel about her report card? How did she expect her mother to react? How did her mother react? Do you think that the fact she washed the dishes helped? Why?

2. Will Carol improve in her studies from now on? Why? Explain your answer.

	(be) said it will be fair.
Now I	(be) happy here. I (not, be) scared anymore. Ron is a great friend and he always	(4-4)
very hard to cheer me up.	30 and an voly hard to one or moup.
Uour	(be) the end of the year
How
	(you enjoy) it? Please cycling trip?	(you,enjoy) it? Please cycling trip?tell me about it in your next letter.
tell me about it in your next letter. I miss you. You know, I really belie	ve what the old proverb says:
tell me about it in your next letter. I miss you. You know, I really belie
tell me about it in your next letter. I miss you. You know, I really belie	ve what the old proverb says:
tell me about it in your next letter. I miss you. You know, I really belie	ve what the old proverb says:
tell me about it in your next letter. I miss you. You know, I really belie	ve what the old proverb says:
tell me about it in your next letter. I miss you. You know, I really belie	ve what the old proverb says: